RE: DeMenna v. Buck Scientific, Inc., et al;
Southern District of New York Case No. 07 CV 6240 (LAP)

Dear Judge Preska:

This firm represents Plaintiff Dr. Gerald J. DeMenna. Your Honor has previously consented graciously to a two-week extension of time, until October 15, 2007, to serve discovery documents including R. 26(a)(1) disclosures, first requests for production of documents and first interrogatories, and also a two-week extension, until October 31, 2007, to serve third-party subpoenas.

With the consent of Michael L. Ferch, Esq., counsel for defendants, we respectfully request that your Honor grant an additional extension of approximately two weeks for each of these dates, such that R. 26(a)(1) disclosures, first requests for production of documents and first interrogatories will be due on or before November 1, 2007 and third party subpoenas will be served on or before November 15, 2007.

We respectfully request that the Court grant the brief extensions requested herein. The courtesies of the Court are greatly appreciated.

SO ORDERED
